

I have been learning the cello for nearly 5 years and in the few months I have been taught by Emma I learned far more than I had in all my time learning so far. I was taught not just how to play a piece but fundamental principles that apply to playing the instrument as a whole, I used to think of practice as a chore but now I can play fully in tune and make a richer sound I can enjoy playing the cello. – James (14 yrs)